

Bell South's Request to deregulate would adversely my choice of internet providers. My present provider is a small indie with excellent tech support. It's Sonic.net. Though sonic is partnered with SBC, if Bell South is successful, SBC will undoubtedly follow suit and Sonic may lose its connection and I will be forced to choose whatever SBC allows. SBC itself has very poor tech support. Please foster consumer choice. Thanks. Yeh Tung